

Application for Field Trip Assistance

Field Trip Assistance

Sterling Montessori is committed to making sure that all students have the opportunity to participate in classroom field trips. There are many benefits to students participating in field trips, the overall learning experience, hands on experience, bringing the classroom lessons to life that is relevant to curriculum and the cultural experience.

The financial assistance program is to assist parents with field trip costs. Assistance will be based on financial need and funds available. Families who qualify will be offered a discounted price or the total cost of the field trip.

The discounted dollar amount varies and is based on the total cost of the field trip. Parents must submit the Field Trip Assistance form 10 days prior to the field trip. If the form is not submitted 10 days prior to the field trip, the form will not be processed.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS Based on financial need. Proof of income required. (Paystubs, etc.)

- Family of 3-4, less than $47,000/year.
- Family of 2, less than $31,000/year.

Families enrolled in the free/reduced meal program do not need to provide proof of income.
